Cover Photo

It is a delight to have an old-timer such as Bill Packwood and his wife, Aurora, as part of the cover photo. Bill has a long history with sports cars, with Porsches, and as a Charter Member of the Diablo Region.

Bill says, "It's a 1962 356B T6 Cabriolet. I've owned the car since 1968 (second owner). It has over 500,000 miles and we just changed the original condenser last month!! The transmission has never been touched."

The photo was taken on March 22 as part of the Kuhn Diablo Region Yosemite Tour with my Olympus C-3020 (for sale). The camera was set for "TIFF" quality resulting in 9 MB file.

BTW, Bill is also an oldtimer when it comes to having his car on covers. His home-built Chrysler special was on both Mechanic's Illustrated and Road and Track way back in '59.

Brian's Beat

by Brian Cameron, President

May is now upon us as you read this and I am just recovering from March. March began with the Board Meeting, Pizza and then the Awards Banquet. Then there was the Yosemite Tour and finally the Cable Car Tour. Hardly a weekend went by without an event. Every Saturday at 8:00 A.M. there is breakfast at Coco's in Dublin, and the third Thursday dinner is at Rocco's in Walnut Creek.

April was off to a fast pace with the Board Meeting, Pizza and on Saturday night, April 5th, the P.C.A. National Executive board Dinner in San Francisco. April 12th was the always fun New & All Comers dinner at the Schreibs' in Danville. On May 3rd, the Fiesta Mexicana at Marilyn Miller's was a great opportunity to drink margaritas and eat Mexican food.

The 2003 Diablo Membership Roster is now available and may be picked up at any and all Diablo events. The first one is free and additional copies are $5.00 each.

The month of April was closed out with CRAB in Sacramento on the 25th, 26th and 27th. This 30th Anniversary version was a great happening. Coming up on Memorial Day is our first public event, the Wash 'n Shine in Danville. This is a fun event and we can always use volunteers to help out. Check out the announcement in this issue on page 14.

In closing, I want to invite all the members to our events. I cannot understand why someone belongs to the Club and never shows up for the events. Please come out, if only to let me know why you belong to

PCA Executive Council

Our president attended and the upbeat speech was by our current National President, Tom Bobbit (above). The photo op of the evening was three former national presidents and the current President with yours truly standing next to legendary (40 years) Panorama photographer, Leonard Turner.

Not everyone attending the EC dinner was a National officer. Terry Zaccone of GGR was caught fully animated (he is Italian) about either winning another freebie to the factory or extending his autocross string to 17 victories at the Florida Parade.

Potpourri

Good news! The inactive 500 in our 620+ membership are slowly giving way to more participation. Breakfast in Dublin on March 22 was standing room only. While this was due, in part, to those gathering for the Yosemite Tour, several tour couples, e.g., the Petersens, included those who admit to being from the infamous 500.

Further good news, this edition is beginning to erode the editor-only domination of included photos. We have photos from Patrick Schmidt, Jack Carpenter, Rich Sutcliffe and Marilyn Miller with others photos in line for the next edition.

There are online options for seeing the Advocate earlier and in color. The site is my personal file sharing homepage <<http://homepage.mac.com/lepprd/FileSharing3.html>> Photos from events such as the Yosemite and Cable Car Tours are also available according to the labeled folders. The 2003 Diablo Region Directory of the membership is available from any Director and is on this site as well.

Herb Schreib tried to claim all the credit. e.g., cooking, cleaning and arrangements for the very successful All and New Comers dinner on April 12. Everyone knew, however, that it was Judy who did 99% of it, with some possible help from friends.

From the Editor

by Ron Leppke <lepprd@mac.com>

"Awesome" is used a million times too frequently and with too much flippancy each day or even hour these days. It was, however, the ideal word for the Saturday, March 22 tour to Yosemite. From the peaceful, quiet deer in the meadow to the unbelievably majestic geological monoliths, it all was such a soothing respite from the violence, death and destruction that is all too typical of both the domestic and international scene in the media each day.

Let's face it; driving a well handling Porsche on Highways 140 or 120 is an additional, but very substantial part of the joy of an event up in California's mountains.

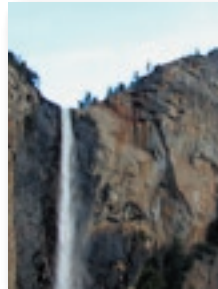

All seven of my previous Porsches were coupes, and I staunchly held no interest whatever in going topless. Saturday, as we closed in on the National Park, I became increasingly aware of how much more I was seeing after putting the Boxster's top down. It was awesome!

I now find myself a bit depressed of having been deprived by my coupe top of the inspiration that has always been Yosemite. Not having a top provided another advantage: every photo in these two columns was taken while I was seated in the Boxster.

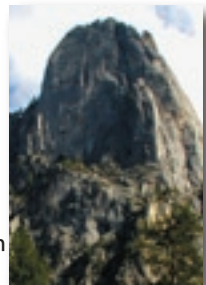

Getting back to the pleasure of driving a Porsche, it was real and substantial and especially so on roads that curve enough to give some test to the suspension. I once had the experience of driving a rental many hours on Highways 120 and 49 and that was nearly painful by contrast. I expect that my autocross compulsion to straighten every curve and clip each apex very tightly was at least a distraction to the Porsche behind me; it clearly was also some sort of problem to a 911 in front of me when that car got into at least one corner too hot trying to stay out of my way.

"Too hot" was also a problem for both group leaders in the upper foothills. Each was stopped by a CHP officer, but Brian's quick admission to 72 mph avoided a ticket.

Yosemite Tour

March 22 & 23, 2003
Conducted by

The "rookie" waiting for his room, Ahwahnee decor, Yosemite Falls, Kingsleys and Packwoods, the historic Ahwahnee, Ed Tavares and 911 next to Warren Gardner's blue 911RS, Warren in person picnicking with others including Frank Duran in back on the left, Hostess Cathy with the Glacier Point room dinner sign, and AnnBritt with Phil and Harriet Eskildsen in the elegant Ahwahnee fireplace room where they had just finished and enjoyed High Tea.

Diablo Region spent the first weekend of Spring on their first weekend tour of 2003 in Yosemite National Park. Tour leaders, Jack and Cathy Kuhn, designed a route along Highway 140's scenic river canyon filled with blooming wildflowers. Upon arrival at the park, 22 Porsches and their owners gathered for a picnic at the Swinging Bridge picnic area, where all enjoyed shared appetizers and gourmet desserts. After members settled into the rustic cabins at Curry Village, many enjoyed hiking and viewing the sights of Yosemite Valley. In the evening, everyone enjoyed the social hour, which was highlighted with digital pictures of the tour taken during the day by Advocate newsletter editor, Ron Leppke. A buffet dinner in the Glacier Point room followed, with many door prizes awarded to attendees.

This year's Yosemite Tour featured the Ansel Adams Gallery with gift certificates for each tour entrant and a Sunday Photo Walk led by a Gallery staff photographer. Although Sunday's showers limited participation, all the walkers were rewarded with special views of the valley and advice from a professional photographer.

While many enjoyed the brunch at the Ahwahnee Hotel, others started on the way back to the Bay Area. Both new and longtime members commented about how much they appreciated the tour, the 15th one the Kuhns have led after a break of several years.

Driving Events

When the Diablo Region was in its very first years, we had an autocross series complete with many men's and women's classes and a whole lot of trophies for many people. Those days are gone, but we still have individual members who serve and compete at mostly high levels.

For example, our Autocross chairperson, Eugenie Thomas, is in charge of registration for the GGR autocross series. Shown here with her valued assistant, Ed Shih, Eugenie is looking forward to the completion of the engine swap in her car so she can return to driving.

The switch away from newsletter editing is paying dividends for Ken Jones, who won the Li class at the recent GGR event at Candlestick. Ken is also tied for first in Class Li for the season so far.

David Zachry, driving an '84 944, was second in Class C.

Randy Orem, driving a 944S2, won Class Dp also on March 29.

Two Diablo Region Boxster drivers, from the Board of Director's page, made their first ever autocross runs at the March 29 event. In kindness and being well aware of the time collapse blur that is the experience of every first ever run, no mention will be made of overall standings (123 entered and each had a 3 digit rank—I lied).

Howard Thomas and Mike Vorkapich took their respective reddish Boxsters out for what we hope was great fun.

Howard fared best in the competition and also was a bit faster than his wife, Vern. Mike's wife, Gale, reports that Mike arrived home with some negative expressions of this first autocross only to come home a day or two later rather sheepishly proffering a receipt for a new driving helmet

Rik Larson reported that the Zone 7 Rally School on Saturday, April 5, hosted by Diablo's Al Armellini in Orinda, went very well.

My April editorial sparked a most welcome response from Rich Sutcliffe. His E-mail with three photos unintentionally pointed up the failure of that editorial to mention the categories of time trialing and vintage racing. Rich, one of the old timers from Denny breakfast days, has helped that oversight by sharing this vintage racing photo from Thunderhill.

Good news and bad news on the rally scene. Our new members, David and Judi Ledford, left the Schreib dinner early (before I could get their picture) to rally in Tracy on Sunday. It is great that new members try rallying; the bad news: they got lost!

"A" for effort and enthusiasm to Mike, Howard and the Ledfords!

My First Porsche

by John Evans

In response to Ron Leppke's invitation, I've searched high and low for a picture of my first Porsche but, alas, they've all been tossed. Nevertheless, you shouldn't have any problem conjuring up the image: it was a beige '67 912.

I purchased it new from a Porsche dealership in Washington, D.C., where I was working at the time. I was so innocent of sports cars in general and Porsches in particular that when I picked up the car, I asked the salesman why it didn't have whitewall tires. He gave me a contemptuous stare and sent me on my way with the new car.

The 912 had a 4-speed transmission, Solex carburetors, skinny 4 1/2 inch tires, and an AM-FM radio. It was hot in the summer, cold in the winter, and from the day it was new it burned a quart of oil every 600 miles.

The day after I got the car, I called the membership chairwoman of the PCA Potomac Region, and she told me the Porsche Parade was being held in the Washington area that very week. I attended and as a result I got incurably infected with all things Porsche. In those days, the Parades had a drawing for a new Porsche, which that year was won by a guy who already had three Porsches.

That initial experience led to my wife and me and our kids going to Parades in the following years at great places like Fort Lauderdale, Boston, the Playboy Club in Wisconsin, Sun Valley, and Monterey.

Of course, when I got the '67 912 I knew little about serious driving. I thought

Saturday Drive: Napa

May 17, from Coco's, Dublin

Clar Cunningham has a Saturday drive laid-out that is certain to please all lovers of wine and Porsche roads. We will be in search of Mario, great wine and fine food. Join us and other PCA members at Saturday breakfast. We will end with wine tasting and lunch.

heeling-and-toeing was a dance. But I went to drivers schools, autocrossed, and learned quickly. I'll never forget my first drivers school. When the instructor took us down the first straight and out of the first turn at Summit Point, I said to myself, "This guy is going to wreck my car and kill us both." But a half hour later, I was going deep into those turns, roaring out, and having the time of my life. Later, I was able to hone my skills at the Jim Russell Racing Drivers School at Willow Springs, where we drove Formula C cars. What a thrill they are. You sit so low you can reach out and touch the ground.

After I had the '67 912 for two years, I moved up to a '69 911 T with the Webers, the odd-shift-pattern 5-speed transmission, and a lot more horsepower. That was a big improvement, but those early Porsches were, and remain, primitive vehicles compared to even the econo cars of today. They're not in the same automotive universe with my 996. Nevertheless, for their time, they were a great introduction to Porsches, Porsche people, and the exhilarating world of high performance driving.
