Cover Photo

It is my preference for any page and particularly the cover, to have any photo be of local people or cars rather than some other very tempting options. As a PCA newsletter editor, I have access to some terrific shots of the latest and greatest fast machinery from Stuttgart and these make exciting covers.

In the editor's column on page six, I complain about not getting photos from readers. We now have a breakthrough! Chris Pohlhammer has taken the initiative to provide a marvelous image of a Boxster in Carmel at sunset.

Taken at Point Joe on the 17-mile drive with the Inn at Spanish Bay, the beach and the Pacific as the background, there could not be a better compliment for the blue Boxster. Chris says he did not intend to include his Porsche, but the truth is that some of us have that same weakness.

The camera was a Cannon PowerShot S30: 1/25 shutter speed, 4.3 aperture and 17.5 focal length.

Brian's Beat

by Brian Cameron, President

The Annual Meeting and Awards Banquet is behind us and I for one had a great time. Awards were given as detailed on pages 12 & 13. "Rookie" winner, Francisco Cabrita, had quite an odeal with his membership application. Pat Schmidt, our new Vice President, was one of the winners (Cable Car Tour) and Ron Leppke, newsletter editor, was also given a trophy (participation in many events, photography, newsletter articles and autocross success).

The first annual John Clever Friendship Award was given to the Angels who have served for many years by handling the newsletter mailing and proofreading. Kathy has also served as editor, secretary, membership and president. Gary and Kathy have opened their home many times for parties and have assisted or participated in a variety events for many years. Created by Irwin "Scotty" Scott in John's memory, this award is given to a member whose involvement and friendship paralleled John's.

By the time you read this, the Yosemite Tour, led by Jack and Cathy Kuhn, will be history. This will be my first trip to the Valley with the Club and I look forward to it. Great scenery, beautiful drive and wonderful friends. What more can you ask?

Always an exciting event, "CRAB" is coming up in April in Sacramento. This is the 30th anniversary event directed by Dwight and Linda Mitchell who chaired my first CRAB about 15 years ago. I am planning to have a wonderful three days, and may host a Saturday pre-banquet cocktail party for Diablo attendees. Hope to see many of you there.

As the year marches on, I am reminded that it is only four more months until my annual pilgrimage to the Bonneville Salt Flats in mid August. We ran 213 mph last year and are planning to set a class record of more than 226 mph this year. This is a great event for aging hot rodders and other speed freaks.

As the weather warms up it will be time to take the 29A roadster pick up out of the garage and clean it up the for Good Guys events. Between Porsches, street rods, and race cars, it sometimes seems hard to have a "normal" life. As you might guess, I am pretty much a car nut and enjoy them to the fullest.

I look forward to seeing many of you at upcoming events and hope to meet some of our membership for the first time. Our Region has over 600 members, but less then 100 participate in club activities. Let's all get out and enjoy our cars and our fellow members.

Looking across to page 5, it appears that Richard Little will be enjoying high performance Porsche driving in his new GT 2.

Speaking of local, i.e., PCA, members and optimal Porsche performance, four of the drivers on the podium at the Rolex 24 are GGR members: Kevin Buckler of The Racer's Group; and David Standridge, Richard Steranka, and Johannes van Overbeek all drivers of the #83 RennWerks third place GT3 RS.

Over 51,000 Porsche Club of America total members

From the Editor

by Ron Leppke <lepprd@mac.com>

One of the co-editors of our sister region (actually our mother region) brings up the often-discussed topic of low membership participation in any and all of their and our events. The point was made that even if only 10 % of the membership arrived at a given event, that event would be overwhelmed.

We have some new leadership in our region since January, and I expect each one of us has speculated and expressed ideas about ways to increase participation. These aspirations dim, however, when more experienced people share their disillusionment of trying a variety of approaches that made no difference.

I have tried to get members to submit photos for the Advocate but, other than three just now (after the deadline), there have been only two in three months.

I have tried to get members to submit photos or descriptions of a "Perfect Porsche Parking Place" (see page 7) but, again, no guesses, no photos and nothing submitted.

I attend nearly every Region event but I will be the first to admit that a main reason for doing so is to have photographic coverage for the newsletter. I also live alone, get tired of my own cooking and get a real kick out of driving really fast through Crow Canyon during off peak hours. Fighting a crowded Crow Canyon, a jammed 680 and an Ygnacio parking lot on Thursday nights is another story and may explain why there were only four of us in January.

The question that always comes up for me in this context is why do people join PCA? Is the Panorama magazine worth $42 a year and/or is the combination of Pano and the Advocate worth $42? A handful of Diablo members autocross with GGR and/or Zone 7 and a bigger handful do something at the Wash n' Shine or Blackhawk concours events. My personal opinion is that the members who sign up for the Cable Car Tour or the Yosemite tour, for two examples, are mostly the same individuals and couples that also come to the dinners and breakfasts.

What about the remaining 500 or more members that do not attend the breakfasts or monthly dinners and who also do not autocross, tour or concours?

If you are happy with the fruits of your $42, then that is it and so be it. Please do not construe anything in this column as an attempt to promote guilt among anyone who freely has chosen a minimum level of participation.

My $42 would be a better investment for me if I could meet some of the 500 members who are currently not very active, if at all. The Porsche owners of the East Bay are an interesting group of people with some fine and interesting Porsches. One of my recent chores for the region was to put together a directory of all 621 members. Reading and typing email addresses, for example, provided pervasive evidence of the quality and breadth of the enterprises represented in our membership list.

If dissatisfaction is the culprit, there is a mechanism within the PCA renewal system that collects reasons any dislikes and then forwards these reasons to local officers. As membership chairman, I followed up with at least one dissatisfied former member but I could not get any response.

If there is disappointment or room for improvement, please tell any officer (see p. 3). Even better, however, would be to identify what we are doing well and let us know so we can keep on doing it.

ATLANTA, FEBRUARY 4, 2003

Porsche AG will unveil its V10-powered Carrera GT high-performance roadster at the March Geneva International Motor Show. With more than 600 horsepower and racing technology, Porsche's top-of-the-line sports car delivers exceptional performance.

The Carrera GT has a pure racing engine. Its 10-cylinder powerplant with dry-sump lubrication is based on Porsche's 5.5-liter V10 naturally aspirated engine developed especially for racing. For production, technicians at the Development Center in Weissach have increased the displacement to 5.7 liters. Maximum output is 612 DIN horsepower at 8,000 rpm, with peak torque rated at 437 pound-feet. The Carrera GT has a top test-track speed of 205 miles per hour and accelerates from zero to 62 mph in 3.9 seconds. Its specially developed six-speed manual gearbox allows it to go from zero to 124 mph in 9.9 seconds.

The specifications demanded a consistent lightweight construction and sports car dimensions. With a length of 15.12 feet, a width of 6.3 feet, a height of 3.81 feet and a wheelbase of 8.96 feet, the roadster weighs 3,042 pounds.

The Carrera GT's mono-coque and entire sub-frame are made of carbon-fiber-reinforced plastic (CFRP), and Porsche has applied to patent this technology. Carbon is the only material that, after complex processing, can meet the requirements needed to combine top-class driving performance and driving dynamics with minimum weight at maximum rigidity.

With attainable speeds of more than 200 mph, aerodynamics plays a crucial role. To achieve as high output coefficients as possible (so-called "downforce"), the Carrera GT has an underbody geometry that can only be found in similar form in pure racing sports cars. The underbody is completely casted in carbon fiber and provides an additional suction effect thanks to its rear diffuser and flow channels.

The Carrera GT also features the Porsche Ceramic Composite Brake (PCCB) system. Porsche has supplied this component since 2001 and is the first manufacturer to include it in a mass-produced vehicle (the 911 Carrera GT2). A global innovation - the PCCB (Porsche Ceramic Composite Clutch) - transmits power to the drivetrain.

The Carrera GT's extremely light magnesium wheels are produced with a special forging process and are offered for the first time on a mass-produced vehicle. The tires were specially developed for the Carrera GT (265/35 ZR 19 in the front, and 335/30 ZR 20 in the rear).

The new Porsche roadster possesses a simple-operation roof system. It consists of two individual carbon fiber lightweight shells, each weighing only 5.3 pounds. These shells can be stored in the front luggage compartment.

The first Carrera GT models produced at the Porsche plant in Leipzig, Germany, will be delivered to customers at the end of 2003.

Porsche Cars North America, Inc. (PCNA), based in Atlanta, Ga., and its subsidiary, Porsche Cars Canada, Ltd., are the exclusive importers of Porsche vehicles for the United States and Canada. A wholly owned, indirect subsidiary of Dr. Ing. h.c.F. Porsche AG, PCNA employs approximately 200 people who provide Porsche vehicles, parts, marketing and training for its 203 U.S. and Canadian dealers. They, in turn, provide Porsche owners with best-in-class service.

Members gathered at the Brass Door, San Ramon, March 8, 2003. Our din-ing room was festively decorated in Porsche black, red and gold, including black polka dotted vases of red and gold flowers, banners and flags. Following Happy Hour, a beautiful full course dinner, with wine, was served. Diablo Region President, Brian Cameron, loudly gaveled the meeting to order, introduced members of the Board and the honored guest, Tim Fleming, Zone 7 Representative. Tim brought the club up to date on PCA National activities and, in particular, CRAB in April.

Blankets For Kids is now the club's charity as directed by Jo Molz. She explained that all donations go toward the purchase of fabric. The blankets are made by some Senior Citizen groups and some individuals. The blankets will be distributed to needy children through the Dr. Laura Foundation.

Phil Eskildsen, name tag chairman, had a special drawing won by Eugenie Thomas.

Chipotle Restaurant coupons were presented to everyone. Other door prize donors were: The Brass Door, Auto Affair, Jamba Juice, Ruggies Restaurant, Pavlo's Pizza, El Balazo Restaurants, Masala Restaurant, Pizza Machine, Tommy T's Comedy Club, Coco's and Levy's Bagels. All in attendance appreciated this generosity!

The club raffle was a Kathy Angell creation: a wine-tasting chalet made of wine corks with an accompanying book, Wine Tours. Jerry Bennett was the happy winner!

With excitement at a fever pitch President Cameron, unveiled the beautiful awards! Brian related interesting facts and humorous anecdotes about the respective award winners.

A big thank you goes to Danny Basso and his wonderful Brass Door staff! Thanks also to Jo Molz, Judy Schreib and Gloria Hall for the beautiful decorations and room set up. Everyone went home with a prize and a good time was had by all. The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 pm by President Brian Cameron!

A Most Unexpected Form

Cayenne

Pure Porsche but a form that is at the opposite end of the continuum that started with a 356. "...simply incredible! Recalibrate your preconceptions" is the quote from the San Francisco Chronicle on March 15, the day of the model's introduction.

These photos are from the Claridge's, Ltd. dealership introduction with ace salesman, George Acosta, demonstrating a feature.

Saturday Drives

by Patrick Schmidt

Saturday Drives are scheduled for the third Saturday after the Diablo breakfast at Coco's in Dublin, May thru October.

One of the new traditions that we have in the Diablo Region was started a few years ago by Don Brunell and the Diablo Board at that time: Saturday Drives.

We have had a number of members volunteer to lead a drive on some great "Porsche Roads" after our regular breakfast. It is really fun to see what roads and sites our members enjoy when they go for a leisurely tour. Drive leaders are still needed so please consider stepping up and directing a drive to your favorite destination.

Past tours include:

Over Mount Diablo, down Morgan Territory Road to lunch in Livermore.
John Clever, Leader

Out past Clayton, past Mount Diablo, over the levees on two ferries, to the Ryde Hotel.
John Williams, Leader

Saturday Drive: Napa

May 17, from Coco's, Dublin

Clar Cunningham has a Saturday drive laid-out that is certain to please all lovers of wine and Porsche roads. We will be in search of Mario, great wine and fine food. Join us and other PCA members at Saturday breakfast. We will end with wine tasting and lunch.

Benjamin Orozco, Leader

Happy Valley Road to San Pablo Dam Road, Skyline Drive to Redwood Road to Palomares Canyon Road, Niles Canyon to Sunol, wineries and lunch on the way.
Pat Schmidt, Leader

Now that we are starting from Dublin, many new roads are in range for a Saturday Drive.

Where would you like to go?

It's time for...

Blankets for Kids

We have a new Diablo Region charity and a new Charity chairperson. Jo Molz, who has served the Diablo Region well for many years, has a new passion focused on neglected and abused children. Jo, who is probably best known for her membership role, explains as follows:

There are over 250,000 children who are abused and or neglected. These children often leave their awful environments with nothing more than the clothes on their back. "Blankets for Kids" makes soft, cuddly, hand made blankets (made by our local Seniors). They are then distributed by the Dr. Laura Foundation. So don't be startled if you see a can with a flyer and a blanket for your nickles, dimes, quarters, $10.00 or $50.00 or $100.00 bills (we even take those). THESE KIDS NEED YOU!!!!

Jo reports $109 in cash, the equivalent of 21 blankets, from her visits to Friday pizza, the Awards Banquet and one Saturday breakfast. Thanks to all!

Fiesta Mexicana Celebration

Saturday, May 3, 2003

6:00 P.M.

Marilynn Miller

Come to Marilynn's casa for a "South of the Border" fiesta (to be catered) and, of course, MARGARITAS (also beer, wine and soda). Call Marilynn at 925/837-5909 and tell her if you'll bring a munchie, salad or dessert to accompany this Fiesta. All this for only $7.50/person.

Please make checks payable to Diablo PCA, and mail to Marilynn at 580 Indian Home Rd., Danville 94526. Checks must be received by April 28 so that your order can be reserved for the fiesta.
(No refunds for cancellations made after Monday, April 30.)

Diablo Region and PorBoys

Proudly present the first Technical Session of 2003. The subject will be "Major tune up".

Joe Zeiph will elaborate on the outline for 100,000 miles of maintenance. This will include the 15,000 and 30,000 mile checkups suggested by Porsche followed by the 60,000 mile transmission oil change and break fluid renewal.

Saturday April 19th at 10:00 A.M.
3640 E. 9th St. in Oakland, CA

If you need further instruction please contact:
Joe Zeiph at 510.437.9400 or Benjamin Orozco at 510.796.8436
